Hi Wendy,

We've scheduled a call with OMB and NASA for 3:30-4:30 this afternoon to discuss RE. We also have an interagency call on prioritization scheduled for tomorrow at 11:30 to discuss hanging issues and, if necessary, tee-up for elevation. If we're not able to get into prioritization follow-up with NASA as part of today's RE discussion, I expect we will do so tomorrow.

OK, just trying to make sure we don't let something slip through the cracks.

I'll get back to you quickly. Melissa Chun was coordinating with OMB about a NASA discussion on the RE rule, and we had thought to handle follow-up on prioritization as part of that discussion.

Hi Peter,

Attached you will find the follow-up comments from interagency reviewers on the EPA's Procedures for Prioritization of Chemicals for Risk Evaluation Under the Toxic Substances Control Act Final Rule. There may be additional verbal follow-up comments from NASA during the call.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Best,

Danielle
